ALLARD EXPRESSES 'SHOCK' OVER SHOOTING

Washington, D.C. — U.S. Senator Wayne Allard (R-CO) expressed “shock” and “anger” over the shooting at Columbine High School earlier today.

“Like all Coloradans, I am shocked by the shootings at Columbine High School, my thoughts and prayers are with injured students and their parents,” Allard said. “It also makes me angry that a place which is supposed a safe haven for students has been turned into a war zone. The last place a student should fear for his or her safety is at school.”
